Putnam County Hospital utilizes Guild

BY MARK STEELE
Staff Reporter

"I would like to thank the guild for providing a service that we couldn't afford." Those were the closing words of Putnam County Hospital Administrator Frank Baker at the annual Hospital Guild luncheon, held yesterday at the DePauw student union.

"The guild saves us thousands of dollars a year on labor," said Baker, "and we should draw the guild in and make it a member of the hospital staff."

Baker, appointed as administrator last January, after 12 years in the Air Force, and three and a half years at the Air Force Academy as assistant administrator, feels the hospital is changing its image and improving personnel and services.

Baker had praise for Mrs. Dorothy Toney, director of personnel at the hospital, in charge of nurses. "We will be looking for more people (nurses) to fill our programs," said Baker, "and this is where we must be strongest." "Mrs. Toney has been a big help in this department."

Baker added, "We should set up a program to train guild workers and we're going to make every effort to set up such a program."

"We are in dire need of new equipment and are looking forward to acquiring more." "We don't have the facilities needed, but we have a clean hospital and this can help make it a good hospital."

Baker spoke of the past year (Oct. of 1967 to Sept. 30 is fiscal year) as a very progressive year, but said there must be more progress in the year to come.

Newly elected officers for the guild took offices for the coming year.

Former Guild president, Mrs. Forst Fuller relinquished her title to incoming president, Mrs. J.P. Allen. Other newly elected officers include, Mrs. Clyde Wildman, first vice president, Miss Elizabeth Ensign, second vice president; Mrs. Edith Browning, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Michael, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Edward Wood, treasurer.

The Putnam County Hospital Guild membership now approaches the 500 member mark, with approximately 20 per cent of that number representing the active body.

Youth club will begin October 3

Youth Club, a regular weekday Christian education program for young people of school age, will begin on Oct. 3 at the Presbyterian Church.

Sessions will be held each Thursday from 3:30 to 6:45 p.m. and each will include a Bible study hour, a choir hour, dinner, and a recreation period.

Under the direction of the Rev. Tom Heinlein, the church will use curriculum materials developed by Youth Club Program, Inc., an association of nearly 300 churches throughout the country now sponsoring similar programs.

Over a period of twelve years, the Youth Club goals have been to link the home and church together successfully in the Christian community. It is not a substitute for the standard Christian education programs, but supplements and supports them in many ways, said Rev. Heinlein.

The Club program at the Presbyterian Church will be offered to young people in the fourth through the sixth grades.

Registration is now closed for the first term, but young people may register for the second term beginning in December. Mrs. Donald Holley is the administrative assistant for the program, and Mrs. Alfred Jeffers is the choir director.

Students still have no answer

State Election Board passes buck to county

BY DENNIS ABELL

Whether or not students at DePauw University are able to register as resident voters of Putnam County today still rests with the county election board.

Yesterday, the State Election Board turned the ruling matter back into the hands of local officials.

The students, represented by Indianapolis attorney Donald Fasig went before the State Election Board consisting of Governor Roger D. Branigin and Thurman DeMoss, both Democrats.

The lone Republican member of the State Election Board, Edwin Steers Sr., was not at the meeting.

The two election board members, in replying to an appeal by the students, quoted the State Attorney general as saying that the state election board did not have injunctive powers and could not order the Putnam County

Circuit Court to order the Putnam County election board to allow students to register as county voters.

The local election board, of which Ennis Masten, Putnam County Clerk is a member, turned five students away from registering as county residents last week. The local clerk said he was following a recommendation set by the county election board last spring when three other students attempted to register for the spring primary election.

Governor Branigin's press secretary told the Banner that the state election board did go on record as saying that the students should not be disenfranchised as long as they qualified as a voter. The opinion is supposed to be forwarded to the clerk of Putnam County.

The question still remains. Are the students qualified? The decision is still in the hands of the county clerk and the county election board.

The deadline of registration is Monday at midnight.

The petition filed before the election board stated that the action taken by the Putnam County election board constituted a denial of the franchise to a qualified voter. It said,

"There is no provision in the laws of the State of Indiana for the county clerk, or the County Election Board to reject an affidavit of a voter to register or to challenge the same except at the polls on election day."

The petition sought an emergency hearing of the board. It had been felt that the students through Fasig would file their case in a Circuit Court.

DePauw professor to speak at Clowes Hall Sunday

The Indianapolis Art League Foundation will present a unique program entitled "ART TRENDS OF THE LAST TWENTY YEARS," given by Ray H. French, noted printmaker and professor of art at DePauw University, Sunday, Oct. 6, 1968, at 2:00 p.m. in the Krannert Room at Clowes Hall of Butler University.

Tickets can be purchased at the Indianapolis Art League Building, 3103 North Pennsylvania Street in Indianapolis, or at the door on the day of the program. Following the lecture will be a social hour and refreshments will be served.

Ray H. French has been exhibiting in national exhibitions since 1946 and has had over 60 one-man shows in the United States and Europe. He has exhibited his work extensively in leading museums, galleries, and universities in the United States,

County will host area conference; 22 counties will attend sessions

The Putnam County Joint School Services Program for Special Education has been asked by the State Department of Public Instruction, Division of Special Education, to host the first Central Indiana Region Instructional Materials Orientation and Demonstration Conference to be held in Central Indiana.

Twenty two counties are represented in the central region and invitations to Special Education personnel have been forwarded, by the Division of Special Education, to personnel serving in each of these counties.

The meeting will be held in the gym at Miller Elementary School located at 534 Anderson Street, Greencastle, Oct. 3, at 6:30 p.m. Teachers will have an opportunity to view materials at 6:30 p.m. Dr. Joseph Rammel, Superintendent of Greencastle Community Schools, will open the meeting at 7 p.m. with a welcome for all personnel.

The primary purpose of this meeting is to help special class teachers and therapists, within the central region of Indiana, to become more familiar with commercially prepared materials and media, and to have an opportunity to observe methods and techniques that can be utilized with such materials.

There is a wealth of materials specifically prepared and published for use by special class teachers and therapists such as text books, workbooks, kits, recording devices, supplementary film strips, film and tapes. However, little guidance in the creative and imaginative use of these materials has accompanied their commercial and academic distribution.

The Division of Special Education, in conjunction with local special education programs, is making an effort to provide information in regard to new and appropriate materials and media that are available for use by special class teachers and therapists in Indiana.

County United Fund sets drive goal

BY BILL BOYD
Staff Reporter

United Fund chairman Bob Morris in a Banner interview quoted this year's UF goal as $31,193, some $5,700 higher than the target sum in 1967. Morris emphasized the importance of the higher goal in 1968 and explained its worthiness.

Commitments to almost all agencies have been increased in '68 and a new agency, Putnam County Recreation, has been added, (agencies are the benevolent, service, youth, and community organizations that receive monies from United Fund).

A consolidated gift to United Fund goes in varying proportion to the Boy Scouts, Cerebral Palsy, Friend of Youth, Girl Scouts, Hospital Guild, Mental Health, Putnam County Junior Sports, Putnam County Recreation, Red Cross, Salvation Army, USO, and YMCA.

Commenting on the new agency, Putnam County Recreation, Morris related that the need for coordinating available sporting facilities with community recreational needs is being fulfilled in this program open to all county residents of all ages.

Tentative plans include swimming, boxing, volleyball, roller-skating, basketball, and other activities. This evening program will put new and existing community equipment to more efficient use.

Morris reminds prospective contributors that giving to United Fund is not only easier than multiple contributions but is a way of giving which is more efficient, allowing gifts to be used more for the respective cause than in administration of the fund drive.

A United Fund Torch symbol on the square will indicate the progress of the drive with its red flame rising with pledges received. Morris urges givers to make it rise all the way.

I.U. professor will speak on sex, death, politics

Dr. May

Man's confrontation with sex, death and politics is the theme of a sermon Dr. William F. May will deliver at DePauw University Wednesday (Oct. 2).

Chairman of Indiana University's Department of Religion, Dr. May will speak at 10 a.m. in Gobin Church, on the campus. Dr. May is an ordained Presbyterian minister and a contributing author to several journals, among them Christianity and Crisis, Crossroads and Social Action. He has served as a writer and narrator too for a TV series undertaken jointly by CBS and the National Council of Churches.

Dr. May is a B.A. graduate of Princeton University. He received the B.D. and Ph.D. degrees from Yale, subsequently serving as chairman of the religion department at Smith College.

Following the public service Wednesday Dr. May will be hosted at a coffee hour in the Christian Action Movement (Methodist Student Foundation) building.

George Doup will speak at meeting

George Doup, President of Indiana Farm Bureau Inc., will discuss "Which Way" to Farm Bureau members and guests from the nine counties in District Five at their annual fall meeting in the Parke County 4-H Building, Thursday, October 3, at 7:30 p.m. Marion Cowan, District director, will be serving as host. Poland youth in serious condition

POLAND, Ind. -- A 14-year-old rural Poland boy was shot in the right side of the head near his home here last night and was first thought to have been killed. Owen County Sheriff Tom Clark said he accompanied the county coroner to the shooting scene but found the youth, Jerry Cook, still alive.

The official had the boy taken to the Putnam County Hospital. He was later taken to Riley Hospital in Indianapolis where today he is listed in serious condition and is in intensive care.

Moving the boy from Putnam to Marion County was not easy. The ambulance in which the boy was transferred, owned by Whitaker's was involved in an accident at Plainfield on U.S. 40 in front of the Plainfield Plaza Center.

Cloverdale soldier is doing his part

WITH THE MOBILE RIVERINE FORCE IN THE MEKONG DELTA — A U.S. Navyman from Cloverdale, is playing a key role in the battle against Viet Cong aggression in Vietnam's Mekong Delta while serving as a member of River Assault Flotilla One, the Naval component of the joint Army-Navy Mobile Riverine Force, (MRF).

Seaman Larry R. Cox, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Cox of Cloverdale, is the port 20mm cannon gunner aboard Armored Troop Carrier (ATC) 131-10, a heavily armed and armored gunboat that can carry a platoon of fully equipped infantrymen into virtually any of the rivers, streams and canals which interlace the Delta.

In a typical operation, the Navy assault boats lift Army troops of the 9th Infantry Division from a mobile riverine base composed of Navy ships to a landing site deep in Viet Cong territory where they are beached to search for the elusive enemy. In so doing, the boats are frequently ambushed from well camouflaged bunkers along the tree-lined banks, sometimes at a distance of less than 20 yards.

Although he is a relative newcomer to the force, Cox has already participated in two fire-fights and regards an ambush on August 2 near the Delta City of Vi Thanh as the most intensive he has seen.

"We were lifting a company of Vietnamese Marines to beaches about 30 miles southwest of the city of Can Tho," recalled the combat sailor.

"My ATC was the third from the rear in a column of 15 boats moving down the Cai Lon River when we were suddenly attacked with a savage barrage of B-40 rocket, recoilless rifle, automatic weapons and small arms fire. We opened up on Charlie with everything we had and were able to suppress his attack after about a four-minute firefight."

After moving out of the ambush area, Cox's boat continued upstream to land the Marines so they could sweep through the area.

In the brief, but savage action described by Cox, MRF and Allied forces sustained light casualties. "A number of our boats were hit pretty hard, but we were one of the lucky ones," said Cox. "We came through without a scratch."

"This ambush was typical of what we may expect every time we go up a narrow stream or canal," stated Cox. "Charlie picks the time and place for our battles, and he usually has the advantage of surprise. Once we open up, however, we can lay down such heavy cannon, machinegun, and grenade fire that any VC who sticks his head up long enough to aim is a dead one."

Between operations Cox and his fellow crewmen live aboard shallow-draft U.S. Navy barracks ships which move up and down the major Delta rivers to the various operating areas.

All the boats and most of the ships of River Assault Flotilla One are part of the Pacific Fleet Amphibious Force and are homeported in San Diego, California.

Prior to entering the Navy in February, 1968, Cox attended Belle Union High School in Fillmore, Indiana.

Mr. French is a native of Terre Haute, Indiana and has studied at John Herron Art School, Indiana State University, University of Colorado, Accademia di Belle Arti (Florence, Italy), and the University of Iowa. He received both his B.F.A. and M.F.A. degrees at Iowa. He traveled in Europe the summer of 1961 on an art history tour on an Eli Lilly Grant. He and his family lived in Florence, Italy in 1963-64.

He has conducted print and painting workshops at the Indianapolis Art League Foundation, Evansville Museum, and the Louisville Art Center. For several years he taught painting in the Adult Education Program at DePauw University. French is professor of art at DePauw University where he teaches printmaking, life drawing, and art history.

Driver has tractor weighed on scales.

All it takes is a little pull

by SHAUN HIGGINS
Staff Reporter

Put a garden tractor, a sled and a load of concrete blocks together and you've got a tractor-pull in the making.

Tractor-pulling, especially of the garden tractor variety is a fast growing sport in Indiana and Greencastle is right in the middle of the activity.

Sixty-four men and women entered a Wabash Valley Tractor Association contest Sunday on the Charles Butler Farm, one-half mile south of the city.

The contest, which began at 2 p.m., was held on a dirt track located next to Ind. 43.

The tractors were divided into four classifications, according to weight. Each was judged according to the distance which it could pull a sled loaded with concrete blocks.

According to Mrs. Joyce Humphrey the number of entries Sunday was "smaller than usual because there were three other tractor-pulls in the state on the same afternoon."

said, there were contests in the southern part of the state and one in the capital city thus reducing the number of out of town entrants in Greencastle.

Still, many people were on hand to compete and observe.

Winners included: 850 Pound Class: R.D. Smith, Indianapolis, first; Mark Butler, Greencastle, second; and Jim Smith, Perrysville, third; 1000 - pound class; Jim Swim, Brazil, first; Woody Porter, Greencastle, second; and Mike York, Greencastle, third; 1200-pound class, Don Patterson, Greencastle, first; Phil Humphrey, Greencastle, second; and Georgia Porter, Greencastle, third; Open Class, Phil Humphrey, Greencastle, first; Fred Sanduski, Ladoga, second, and Charles Cooper, Greencastle, third.

The longest pull of the afternoon was turned in by Jim Swim in the 1000-pound class. Swim pulled his load 56 feet and 10 inches before grinding to a halt.

The Association held over 15 pulls last year and has held about 10 in 1968.

The groups will elect new officers on Oct. 13 when it holds its annual meeting at the Greencastle VFW hall.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

The Electoral College

HARDLY an election year passes without demands
that the "archaic" Electoral College be abolished.
This method of choosing presidents, which has been
with us since the birth of the republic, is frequently taken to task as being undemocratic because it could deny the presidency to the candidate who received the most popular votes.

The protests are even louder this year because of the third party candidacy of former Alabama Gov.
George C. Wallace and the possibility that none of the nominees may gather the 270 electoral votes needed to win. In that case, the decision would rest with the U.S.
House of Representatives, where it is asserted the will of the people might be frustrated by Wallace's political leverage.

As a result, we are once again hearing proposals that the Electoral College be abolished and replaced with a system of direct election.

Fears that Wallace may parlay electoral technicalities into political advantage may be justified. But there is another possibility which the anti-Wallace people do not seem to have considered. It is that the Electoral College could also deny the presidency to Wallace were he to emerge with a lead in popular votes over the regular party nominees.

In the current three-man race, it is mathematically
possible for Wallace to lead the other two candidates with as little as 34 per cent of the popular vote. Under a system of direct election, he could automatically become president of the United States.

The Electoral College, however, serves as a constitutional restraint upon the passions of the day. It could confer the presidency on someone other than Wallace,
or if it became deadlocked the House of Representatives would choose the president. There, Republicans and Democrats might combine to form a majority coalition.

If such a situation were to develop this November,
we wonder if the anti-Wallace people would be as eager to abolish the Electoral College as they are at the moment.

The Founding Fathers conceived the Electoral College as an institution capable of preserving the republic from the excesses of pure democracy. The nature of man being what it is, such an instrument of restraint
will always be needed.

Nixon says he will steer
clear of Wallace attacks

By JUDSON RANDALL
MIAMI (UPI)—Richard M.
Nixon has decided to steer clear
of frontal attacks on former Alabama Gov. George Wallace
unless the third party candidate
continues to gain strength
during the next few weeks.

However, Nixon's political director, Robert Ellsworth, left open the possibility that Nixon
would aim directly at Wallace
as he has at Hubert H.
Humphrey if the former governor maintains his upward
climb.

The Republican presidential candidate spent the weekend in nearby Key Biscayne where he combined rest at the midpoint
of his campaign with strategy
sessions with his principle
advisers.

Nixon scheduled a flight today
to Detroit where he will appear on an evening television panel confronted by questions from local residents.

Map Strategy
Among those conferring with Nixon during the weekend were Kentucky Sen. Thurston Morton
and Wisconsin Rep. Melvin Laird. California Lt. Gov.
Robert Finch was expected to join the campaign in Detroit
today.

Ellsworth said Nixon was "highly pleased" Sunday when the latest Gallup poll showed him leading with 43 per cent, Humphrey second with 28 per cent and Wallace with 21 per cent. In addition, the Nixon forces were buoyed by indications in the poll that Wallace's strength was eating away at Humphrey's backing.

Ellsworth said Nixon would continue to compete with Wallace, indirectly appealing to what he called the voter's
desire for change and hammering away at the need to end
lawlessness and violence.

However, Nixon will not compete with Wallace where the former governor has "regional strength," Ellsworth said. He agreed that this would effectively rule out the deep south
states.

Dispute Border States
Although observers in such
border states as Kentucky, Tennessee and Florida believe
Wallace has the winning edge,

Ellsworth said he believed that Wallace's strength would ebb in these areas.

In recent days, Nixon has directed emotional pledges to his rally audiences that if elected he would curb crime
and violence.

In a radio speech Sunday, he attacked the Johnson administration for fostering an atmosphere of crime and lawlessness.
He likened the destruction of crime and violence to an invasion by some foreign power
and compared the student demonstrations to insurrections
under a tyranny that offers no
means of peaceful change.

Mimi Littlejohn named
Whitcomb co-chairman

Miss Mimi Littlejohn, 1968's
"500 Festival" queen, was named
today as co-chairman of the Students for Whitcomb.

Her appointment was announced
by Secretary of State Edgar D.
Whitcomb, Republican candidate for governor, who said a male co-chairman to serve with her
will be named at a later date.

In a press statement, Miss Littlejohn said she will celebrate her 21st birthday Jan. 2, too late to vote this fall.

"But," she said, "I believe it vital for young people to become active in politics and to be interested in the candidates. I feel that I can contribute by helping organize young people for work in the campaign. In Mr. Whitcomb,
we have an ideal candidate. . . .

candidate that appeals to the young people."

Miss Littlejohn is the daughter of a veteran Republican leader.
Mrs. M.M. Littlejohn of 712
Three Rivers North, Fort Wayne.
Mrs. Littlejohn was state vice chairman of Republicans for Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.
The Whitcomb student leader,
active in the Young Republicans,
is a junior in the School of Education at Indiana University,
where she has maintained a "B"
average. She's majoring in speech and hearing therapy. A member of Pi Beta Phi social

Surplus farm products put to use

By BERNARD BRENNER
UPI Farm Editor
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The
use of surplus farm products to pay for military supplies and foreign aid shipments has risen to an all-time high, the Agriculture Department reports.

Department specialists said
contracts under a barter program, designed to cut the outflow of dollars for supplies the government buys abroad, rose to a record of $284.4 million in the fiscal year ending last June 30.

Under this program, surplus American farm products are being shipped abroad to buy
military supplies and services ranging from aircraft maintenance to wall lockers for U.S.
bases in foreign countries. The barter program also is being used to pay for foreign purchases of items including cement, fertilizer and zinc for delivery to needy nations under aid programs.

In a typical barter deal, the Agriculture Department supplies U.S. farm products to a barter contractor. The contractor sells the crops overseas for dollars, and turns over the money — or supplies purchased with the money — to an armed forces base abroad.

The Defense Department then takes dollars which Congress appropriated to buy supplies
abroad and repays the Agriculture Department for the crops.

The net result of the deal:
The Defense Department gets
the foreign-made goods or services it needs; but dollars which would have been spent in the procurement remain in the U.S.
to avoid a drain on the government's balance of payments.
Instead of using the dollars the government gets the needed

items by swapping off surplus crops.

Barter exports of farm products are regulated, it was explained, by controls designed to keep them from replacing normal cash export sales. The Agriculture Department has, since 1957, banned barter sales to "primary" U.S. commercial
markets abroad.

In scheduling barter deals,
department officials said, the exports are approved only to
"secondary" market countries.

LARGE
JACKPOTSSupport
grows for Wallace
in Texas

By DAVID ANDERSON
AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Supporters of George Wallace, possibly one million strong, are making a close three-man race of what otherwise might be a runaway
for Richard M. Nixon in Texas.

A recent statewide poll gave Wallace 25 per cent of the Texas vote. Retiring Democratic Gov. John B. Connally
estimates Wallace's current strength at about 30 per cent.
There are four million registered voters and about three million are expected to vote.

In a two-man race, Nixon would be a heavy favorite to beat Vice President Hubert H.
Humphrey in Texas by about 55-45.

But because of Wallace's surprising strength, neither the Humphrey nor Nixon camp
expects to get a clear majority.

Any of the three conceivably
could win the state's 25
electoral votes, but top Democrats concede Nixon is a slight favorite at the moment.

Protest Votes

Wallace is strong in many
normally Democratic areas.
Particularly among farmers
and union members. But Connally and others call these
"protest votes" that would go to Nixon if Wallace were not in the race.

Nixon strategists in Texas are mapping a careful campaign to take votes away from Wallace
and give them to Nixon.

John Hurd of Laredo, Nixon's
state campaign chairman, said
a polling organization has been commissioned to "find out who
the Wallace supporters are,
whom they supported in the past, and what we can do to get them."

He indicated Republicans will try to convince these people
that voting for Wallace is futile.

"About 30 per cent of the Wallace people are hard core," Hurd said. "The other 70 per cent range from weak leaners to heavy leaners. These are the people who will respond to what I call the 'don't waste your vote' approach."

Wallace Defections

Connally said he expects Nixon to get most of the Wallace defections, but thinks a big Democratic turnout could still give Humphrey the state with perhaps 40 per cent of the vote.

Wallace's Texas organization is run largely by members of the John Birch Society.

The state chairman of Wallace's American Party, Bard A.
Logan of San Antonio, is a member of the society and said
about 15 of the other 30
executive committee members
also are Birchers.

Republicans in Texas are united and well-financed. GOP Sen. John Tower is a key Nixon supporter.

Humphrey's Texas campaign
got organized only last week
and both the conservative and liberal wings of the Democratic Party remain unenthusiastic.

Humphrey's name was scarcely mentioned at the state Democratic convention last month. Connally and other conservatives so far have declined to campaign actively
for the vice president.

well.

Years ago, the G.P. called me
in, listening with a stethoscope,
tightened a blood pressure cuff,
tapped blood and assorted fluids,
stuck a lighted cone at eyes,
ears, nose, and throat, and said:
"You're good for another year—I think. Don't quote me."

The examination has been refined and elaborated to such a degree that I found myself walking from one panelled room to another in a shortie nightgown which tied in the back. I look funny dressed.

Once, I passed my dentist in the hall. He was in a shortie and I tried to show him a tooth,
but he was yanked into another
panelled room by a radiologist
with glasses and dark hair, who flipped him on his side and said:
"Take a deep breath. Take another. Stop breathing, sir."

There was a sound like a bicycle coaster brake stripping a gear
and the nurse had an excellent photograph of what is going on inside my dentist — something
his nurses would like to study.

My wife, who holds all the insurance, said: "Go ahead, Take four days off. I'll make the appointments. All you have to do is to take your -- ha, ha -- body
to his office on time." She couldn't lose. If it turned out good, I would continue to earn a little money for her and the kind. If not, she would start humming the theme song of the Merry Widow.

There is no place in that wrinkled nightgown for a pack of cigarettes. I hid mine in the medical library and, when there were five minute waits between rounds,
ducked in, lit the butt, and blew
the smoke between the pages of Gray's Anatomy, Vol. 1. No one suspected except the receptionist, who keeps the waiting room
warriors off her neck with a sliding panel. She has two cigarettes lit in her ashtray, on her side of the sliding window, of course. "The doctor," she said,
"told you not to smoke."

The free literature ranged from a copy of Esquire to a new book called The Traumatic Neu-rosis, by Dr. Lester Keiser. It is published by Lippincott and I read the chapter on "Maling-ering" and, whatever it is, I've got it. I switched to Esquire.

Every man believes that his doctor is the best. This is an essential before reporting to a physician. Mine, Dr. Louis Bennett, has the patience to explain,
with pencilled diagrams, why

liver function has to be related to kidney function, and what cigarettes will do to the potatoes
in a silly assortment of tubes
called the bronchial. He has no appreciation of what those tubes
have done to my cigarettes.

On the third day, I had the feeling that I was an automobile.
I was being hoisted on the rack,
and white-coated people were in the pit looking up, checking my transmission and shock absorbers. The windshield wipers worked, but the muffler was shot.
A lovely nurse named Donna said
I had nice veins. I was going to tell her that hers matched her eyes, but I thought that this could lead to things, so I contented myself with the neon smile,
which turns on and off like a hamburger sign.

One of the medical ironies, for me, is that I feel great until I get inside the doctor's office. At once, I fall apart like an old Erector set. I'm sick, sick, sick.
Dr. Bennett must listen to interminable complaints and 'descriptions of pains. He nods, arms folded, his mind on a movie
he saw last night called "The Producers." He chuckles.

He and a nurse work with pen

Colonial Dames hear talk on Harrison

The Sir John Ogle Chapter of the Colonial Dames of the XVII Century met with Mrs. Robert McCollough Friday. After a dessert, Mrs. Elmer Seller, president, opened the business session.

Miss Carrie Pierce gave a program about the "Soldiers and Sailors Monument" at Indianapolis and the history of the Harrison "The Immigrant" who came from England to the new Colony of Virginia well before 1633. The fifth Benjamin was a signer of the Declaration of Independence and the father of Benjamin Harrison, the 23rd president.

Calvin Coolidge, 30th president of the U.S., picked up his interest in politics in his father's country store.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodpaster

Couple now live in Greencastle

Miss Trudy Faye Siddons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Siddons, R.R. 1, Fillmore, became the bride of Michael Lee Goodpaster Sept. 15 in the Fillmore Christian Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Goodpaster of Belle Union.

Following a wedding trip to Kentucky and Ohio the couple are at home at 410 East Hanna Street, in Greencastle.

The Rev. George S. Pyke officiated during the double ring ceremony. Bridal music was provided by Mrs. Sylvia Nicols and Mrs. Rita Sibbitt, who sang, "More" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Lauanna Horn was at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown styled with a fitted bodice with scalloped neckline, long sleeves of lace ending in bridal points. An insert of tiered lace accented the front of the skirt. She wore an engagement ring of emeralds and moonstones which belonged to her maternal great-grandmother.

A cluster of Chiffon roses secured her elbow length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

The maid of honor was Miss Suzanne Gorham who wore a short-sleeved, A-line gown raspberry in color accented with a SHOP WARDS FALL/WINTER CATALOG.

For at least 1/3 of your day, it's a nuisance.

Nobody spends all day near a kitchen phone. Or a hall phone. (Or wherever it is you have the ringing thing.)

We're guessing that at least 1/3 of the time, a one-phone family does cross-country running through the house or scrambles down some stairs to take the call.

You can't call that modern living. In fact, 40% of the families in America aren't living like that.

They've got an extension phone somewhere else in the house.

That second telephone would cost a lot less than you probably think. Something like 4 cents a day if you choose the basic color and style.

(And that's a bargain—you already pay about four times that for the phone you've got now.)

Call our business office or ask the men on the telephone trucks you see around town.

Hello, extension telephone; goodbye, nuisance.

Gibson to go against 31-game winner McLain

By ED SAINSBURY
UPI Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Smart money rode with baseball "know-how" today in rating the St. Louis Cardinals an 8 to 5 choice not only for the World Series, but also for Wednesday's opening game matching Bob Gibson against Denny McLain.

In making the odds, the speculators ignored McLain's 31-6 won-lost record in favor of the 1.12 earned run average posted for the season by Gibson, the big right-hander of the Cardinals who won 22 games and lost nine.

The "know-how" has to ride with Gibson. He's been a steady star and only a year ago was rated the most valuable player in the World Series, when he won three games and ran his streak of complete game victories in the series to five, tying a record. Gibson is also the only man to win the seventh game of two different World Series.

Seeks Consecutive Titles

If he can beat McLain, he'll have the Cardinals off and winging toward a second consecutive world championship. If the Redbirds succeed, it would be the first time since John McGraw's Giants more than 40 years ago that any National League team has won back to back World Series.

Speculators, though, might be ignoring McLain's mark at their own risk. The cocky McLain has been most potent on the road, losing only twice this season away from the small confines of Tiger Stadium, and the Cardinals' Busch Stadium may be just the answer for him to beat Gibson.

The Tigers boast a far better slugging record than the Cardinals, 185 home runs to 73, but their bombs came mostly in their home park. Still, they should be able to match the St.

Louis slugging in Busch Stadium, despite a .235 team batting average compared to .249 for St. Louis.

Busch Stadium will not be a new experience for McLain since he pitched in the arena in the 1966 All Star game and had no trouble in getting through three scoreless innings against the best hitters the National League could offer.

Pitching Feat

Thus the Cardinal power in the big area may be nullified somewhat by McLain's experience and the power which made him the first pitcher since 1934 to win 31 games and the first in the American League with that total since Lefty Grove in 1931. McLain has an earned run average of 1.96.

Wednesday's game could be the first of possibly three classic confrontations between McLain and Gibson. They'll probably meet again in the fourth game in Detroit Sunday and if the series should go seven games, they would be certain rivals for the payoff seventh clash.

Meanwhile, Detroit Manager Mayo Smith has nodded at left-hander Mickey Lolich, 17-9, and Earl Wilson, 13-12, to pitch the second and third games. The chances are they'll oppose Nelson Briles, 19-11, and Ray Washburn, a no-hit pitcher who wound up 14-8 for the season, although Steve Carlton, 13-11, also could figure in Manager

Red Schoendienst's plans. Tickets as usual were at a premium for the 50,000 capacity stadium, and there was no question the place will be jammed at the 1 p.m. (CDT) game time. The weather forecast was for clear skies with the temperature in the 70's.

Boilermakers get word 'keep going'

By United Press International
"Keep going" was the slogan Monday in Purdue's football camp while at Indiana, it was a matter of "bouncing back."

The "keep going" momentum after Saturday's rousing 37-22 victory at Notre Dame is supposed to carry Purdue all the way into the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, 1969.

The Boilermakers, coach Jack Mollenkopf indicated, were confident they could do it as they turned their attention to the Big Ten opener at Northwestern. "Winning the Big Ten title—that's our goal," Mollenkopf said simply.

"I think we'll be able to bounce back," said Indiana's Johnny Pont after the Hoosiers' 38-20 loss at Kansas. Hapless Illinois, lashed without mercy by Kansas and Missouri, provides IU's opposition for Saturday's conference home opener.

Notre Dame should also be in a "bouncing back mood"—against long-time rival Iowa.

Clovers cover Rox Pointers cut Cards

Five Cloverdale cross country runners finished within 10-seconds of each other, as Al Tucker's Clovers ran to their 15th win of the season against one defeat. Bainbridge beat Fillmore 27-30 in a duel meet to end the Cardinals season at 4-5.

The Clovers beat Rockville 16-42 by sweeping the first four places and five of six. Ron McKamey finished in a time of 10:28 followed by team-mates Dennis Sutherland 10:31, Dave Elmore 10:32, Bobby Steele 10:33 and Virgil Hunsicker 10:38.

Rockville's Jerry Fisher placed fifth behind Steele in a time of 10:34.

FINERAN TOP RUNNER

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Host Southport beat state champ Muncie Central Saturday, 36 to 79, for honors in Class "A" of its annual high school invitational cross-country run.

West Lafayette edged Brazil, 35 to 37, in Class "B."

Brazil's Dan Fineran set a Class "B" record of 9:36.0 for the two-mile grind, beating Tom New of Greenfield by .4 of a second.

Darrell York was the Class "A" individual winner at 9:50.

Others in the top ten were, John Berry (R) seventh; Chad Wilhite (R) eighth; Mike Holsapple (C) ninth; Jim Montgomery (R) tenth.

Cloverdale will travel to Martinsville Friday for a 3-way meet with the Artisans and Edgewood. Saturday the Clovers compete in a 20-team Wabash Valley meet at Terre Haute, hoping to finish second behind Brazil.

Bainbridge's Dale Steele won at Fillmore in a time of 10:46. First ten were, 2--Wilson (B), 3--Roland (F), 4--Puckett (F), 5--Humphries (F), 6--Pickett (F), 7--Garrett (B), 8--Hutchinson (B), 9--Zenor (B), 10--Garrett (B).

1968 DePauw Soccer Team

DePauw University's varsity soccer team opens its season here Wednesday (Oct. 2), hosting Indiana University at 3:30 p.m. on Boswell Field, adjacent to Blackstock Stadium. The tigers enter the fray 0-1 for the season after losing to Wheaton College 1-0 on Sept. 21. Saturday the team hits the road for a date at Cedarville (O.) College. The squad, front row left to right, includes Larry Tasha, Mike Allee,

Bill Doepeke, Jan Hoey, Jim Graninger, Paul Mitchell, Rick Fanyo, and Coach Charlie Erdmann. (Second row, left to right) Steve Jacobs, Paul Gibson, George Burr, Bob Shaykin, Graham Green, John Erdmann, Charles Hershey, and John Current. Gerstmeyer leads WIC

Terre Haute Gerstmeyer's 13-0 defeat of West Vigo last week boosted the Black Cats to the top rung of the Western Indiana Conference ladder with a 3-0 mark. Closest rivals are the Tiger Cubs and Wiley each with 1-0 loop marks.

While Gerstmeyer takes a three-game break from the WIC competition, both Greencastle and the Red Streaks will entertain in the conference. The Cubs next three are all on the road.

Greencastle's schedule includes West Vigo, Schulte and Sullivan, while Wiley will go against Honey Creek, Garfield and Schulte.

West Vigo is currently sharing the WIC cellar with Honey Creek and Linton. The Vikings are 0-4, the Bees 0-3 and Linton is 0-2. However, the Vikings did impress Gerstmeyer last week by only giving up 13 points.

Schulte, Sullivan, Garfield and Brazil ride in the one loss column behind the Black Cats, Cubs and Red Streaks. Schulte's Bears meet Brazil prior to their clashes with Greencastle and Wiley. The Bears move on to Clinton before finishing with Sullivan.

Sullivan will host Clinton this week, move on to powerful Vincennes next week before hosting the Tiger Cubs the following week.

Brazil, victor over the Golden Arrows last week, have a two week drop from the conference pace after Friday's encounter with Schulte. Brazil then comes to Greencastle.

Garfield's Purple Eagles have five WIC games in-a-row starting this week with Linton, then on to Wiley, West Vigo, Gerstmeyer and Brazil.

Honey Creek and Linton each have four league games left, West Vigo has five left.

Putting-you-firsts:

(A quick tour of some of the thoughtful new features the 1969 Chevrolets offer that other cars in Chevrolet's field don't.)

Headlight washers

You push the windshield washer knob and hold it, and what happens?

Your headlights come clean.

Fluid is diverted to two jet nozzles at each light lens. (Outer lights only on duals.)

The spray is strong. It removes up to 80% of accumulated dirt.

The feature is standard on 1969 Corvettes.

It comes with the hidden headlights available on Camaro, Caprice, and Kingswood Estate Wagons.

It is available on all other models except Corvair.

Be the first on your block.

Heated glass

In a moment your rear window will self-defrost.

Because we've built into it a network of tiny ceramic strips capable of heating the entire surface.

Fog and frost disappear quickly and quietly.

You just flick a switch.

The heated rear window is available on the 1969 Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Pushbutton tire chains

This is ingenious, if we do say so ourselves.

You press a button on the instrument panel and the rear tires get a shot of "liquid tire chain."

You spin your wheels once, wait a moment, and you're off—with traction

you wouldn't believe possible on slick ice, or packed snow.

A pressurized container sits up under each rear wheelhousing, and holds about 15 applications.

Which could get you through several winters in some parts of the country.

(Several weeks in others.)

Available on all 1969 big Chevrolets.

Steering wheel lock

When you own a car as desirable as the 1969 Chevrolet, you don't take chances.

When you leave it, you lock it.

Not just the doors.

You lock the ignition, steering wheel and transmission lever, too.

Our new lock on the steering column takes care of all that.

So even if somebody manages to break in and cross the wires, he'll have a hard time going anywhere.

Standard on all 1969 Chevrolets, Chevelles, Chevy Novas, Camaros and Corvettes.

Sorry, car thieves.

Power steering plus

The 1969 Caprice, Impala and Camaro are available with a new type of power steering.

Variable-ratio power steering.

What it does is give you faster steering with fewer turns of the wheel.

And with no increase in effort on your part.

(And without giving up that nice firm feel on straightaways.)

Variable-ratio power steering is particularly helpful in short, full turns.

And parking becomes unbelievably easy.

You'll see.

Walk-in wagons

The tailgate swings open like a door on most of our 1969 station wagons.

Which in itself is no big deal.

But wait, there's more.

We've built a concealed step into the rear bumper.

You simply step up, over, and in.

(The way we build our wagons, you can do it without bumping your head, and without acrobatics.)

Walk into a wagon soon at your Chevrolet dealer's.

'69 Impala Custom Coupe

Putting you first, keeps us first.

State Republicans lose battle to place third judge on ballot

By HORTENSE MYERS

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Indiana Republicans lost two battles, and probably the war, in their efforts to place a third Supreme Court judge on the Nov. 5 election ballot.

The Indiana Supreme Court late Monday denied a petition filed by the GOP which sought to have the state's highest court assume jurisdiction of a case which the Democrats on Friday had succeeded in transferring from the Marion County Superior Court to the Appellate Court. Now it still remains unsettled in the Appellate Court.

Also late Monday, the Indiana Election Board decided to take no action on the question of whether the successor to the late Supreme Court Judge Donald R. Mote should be on the ballot this year or in 1970. The election board, with only Gov. Branigin and Thurman DeMoss, the two Democratic members, present, took the position that it could do nothing so long as the Appellate Court has the question under consideration.

Gov. Branigin names successor to Judge Mote

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Governor Branigin today named a successor to Indiana Supreme Court Judge Donald R. Mote as a political battle continued over Mote's successor.

Branigin's appointment of Steuben Circuit Court Judge Roger O. DeBruler, Angola, did

McNamara will double loans to poor

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Robert S. McNamara, in his first major speech as president of the World Bank, called today for "new initiatives" in population control as a major means of helping the world's poorer nations.

The former defense secretary also told a meeting of the free world's central bankers and finance ministers that he intends to double the world bank's loans to underdeveloped countries over the next five years "to help them rise out of the pit of poverty."

McNamara made the statements in a speech prepared for the opening session of the World Bank governors' annual meeting with representatives of the International Monetary Fund.

On the issue of birth control, he said:

"It is the population explosion which, by holding back the advancement of the poor, is blowing apart the rich and the poor and widening the already dangerous gap between them... The rapid growth of population is one of the greatest barriers to the economic growth and social well-being of our member states."

It was McNamara's first major address since he took over the World Bank presidency in April.

The bank and the IMF, both United Nations affiliates, have held joint meetings for 23 years on the bank's development loan policies and the IMF's role as the currency and gold exchange control center for Free World trading nations.

American Legion Post #58 by Ralph D. Richards, Comdr., (Club Beer, Liquor & Wine Retailer, 123 E. Walnut St., Greencastle, Indiana)

Said investigation will be open to the public and public participation is requested.

INDIANA ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

By W. F. CONDON, Executive Secretary

JOE A. HARRIS Chairman

Oct. 1-11

Branigin earlier Monday had named 34-year-old Roger O. DeBruler, Angola, as Mote's successor. DeBruler resigned his job as Steuben Circuit Court judge, a post he had held for five years, first by appointment, then by election. DeBruler's appointment probably will run until Jan. 1, 1971, unless quick action puts the position on the 1968 ballot.

DeBruler is a Democrat; the late Judge Mote was a Republican. With the Branigin appointment, the Indiana Supreme Court changes from 3-2 Republican control to 3-2 Democratic control. DeBruler sat with the other four judges Monday during oral arguments.

The opposing views of the two political parties were voiced by Atty. Gen. John J. Dillon, representing the Election Board, and Charles G. Castor, an attorney for Benton Circuit Court Judge Everett West, the GOP candidate for Mote's seat, and Hansford Mann, Terre Haute, in whose names the Republicans brought the action.

State GOP chairman Buena

not indicate how long DeBruler would serve.

The announcement said "He will serve until a successor has been elected."

DeBruler is a Democrat and his appointment to replace Mote, a Republican, changes the political balance of the state's highest court from Republican control to 3-2 Democratic control.

DeBruler, 34, who has served as Steuben judge for five years and is an Indiana University Law School graduate, became the Democratic heir-apparent to Mote's seat, whatever the outcome may be of the current legal conflict.

The Republicans do not dispute Branigin's right to name a successor to Mote but they believe he should serve only until Jan. 1, 1969. The Republican State Central Committee and chairman Buena Chaney say he should be replaced then by the winner of a judge contest the GOP is trying to get on the Nov. 5 ballot.

The GOP State Central Committee already has selected Benton Circuit Court Judge Everett L. West as its nominee on the Nov. 5 ballot as Mote's successor.

The Democrats, through Atty. Gen. John J. Dillon, contend it is too late to get the vacancy caused by Mote's death Sept. 17 in Wash on this year's general election ballot. By their legal position, DeBruler would serve until his successor is elected in November, 1970, and is sworn into office Jan. 1, 1971.

PARIS (UPI)—If Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel had been a fictional character, critics would have accused the author of exaggeration. She was too successful too early, too beautiful, too elegant, too witty, too loved and, finally, too enduring. But when the curtain rises this fall on the Broadway musical version of her life, critics will have to concentrate instead on how well it represents this remarkable grand dame of high fashion.

At 85, Chanel herself is looking forward to the musical like a school-girl posing for her first portrait and laughing just as girlishly at any suggestions that she might be on the verge of retiring. "Maybe" is as close an admission as she will give to the fact that even Chanel cannot go on forever. Still busy Cecil Beaton was designing the costumes for the show, not because Chanel herself couldn't, but because she is still too busy dressing many of the world's best dressed women.

Her twice-yearly collections are not-to-be missed fashion events, even though she insists on covering knees when everyone else insists on revealing them.

pink sash. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Sherry Cash wore a short sleeve A-line gown, pink in color accented with a raspberry hued sash. The attendants carried nosegays of raspberry and pink pompons. The groom's attendants were Roger Vickrey, best man, and Steve Terry, Ushers were Rodney Siddons, brother of the bride and William McCammack, brother-in-law of the groom. The mother of the bride wore a long-sleeved dress, celery in color accented with hunter green suede and a corsage of tropical roses. The bridegroom's mother selected a dress of blue brocade, with a corsage of yellow roses. A reception was held following the ceremony with the Misses Karen and Sally Siddons, sisters of the bride and Mrs. Maxine McCammack, sister of the groom, assisting. Mrs. Nickey Singleton registered the guests and Mrs. Pam Terry assisted with the gifts. The bride is employed by the Putnam County Daily Graphic. The bridegroom is employed by Allison in Indianapolis.

chapter year 1968-1969, Epsilon will address itself to the question, "How are values transmitted, protected, or threatened--by various aspects of modern life, including television, the performing arts, the fine arts, and the teaching arts?" The program for 1968-1969 has been developed under the direction of Mrs. Russell Compton, who will present the program plan for the year and issue the new chapter yearbooks. Mrs. Compton was assisted in the planning by Mrs. Derrel Gooch, Miss Elizabeth Daggy, Mrs. F.M. Aker, Mrs. Susan Owens, Mrs. Myron McMains, and Mrs. George Friend.

Mrs. Alfred Peterson will open the discussion of the program theme at the October meeting with some pertinent questions concerning the effect of violence, as portrayed on television, upon values.

Mrs. F.M. Aker will conduct a "Sing-Song." Presiding at the business meeting at which chairmen of committees will present their plans for the coming year will be Mrs. Deryl Sanders, chapter president.

Voyageur youths and parents hold reunion

A large number of boys from Camp Voyageur sat with their eyes on Al Fasola and Trent Detamore as they raced up and down the DePauw University football field.

The players were counselors for the campers during the past summer.

A large number of parents came from Cincinnati, O., Monmouth, Ill., and even La Crosse, Wis. The usual group representing Indiana and the many Indiana towns who send boys to Voyageur attended the Saturday football game.

After the football game the group went to the Charles Erdmann residence, on Highfall Avenue, where an open house was held. Another year of canoeing and fishing was planned.

Voyageur has been operated for 17 summers by Charles Erdmann, DePauw University swimming and soccer coach.

Located near Ely, Minnesota, near the National Superior Forest wilderness area, the camp specializes in canoe trips and water sports of all kinds.

over a huge medical form. Tests are evaluated against other tests. The electro-cardiogram is matched, like a section of the Rocky Mountains, against the EKG of last year. The peaks, valleys, and arroyos are in agreement. He has some tests which are not amusing, like: "Bend over this table as though you were trying to find something on the floor on the opposite side." For a time, I was full of liquid chalk. When it was all over, he suggested that I cut my weight (5 ft. 7 1/2 inches, 174 pounds) and the cigarettes, which only amount to one a day all day long.

This advice I could have received from my laughing wife -- free. Everything else, he said, was within "tolerance." He placed a hand on my shoulder and smiled. "You're good for another year -- I think."

I left him, a healthy wreck. . .

Expert Tips Help When Buying Rugs

NEW YORK (UPI)—Underfoot on the homefront the trend is to carpets backed with sponge rubber, latex foam rubber, or plastic foam.

The reasons: people like the cushioned feel of foam-backed carpets and the convenience of not having to cope with separate felt pad underlays.

But with these foam-backed carpets and area rugs the underside is especially important. The International Institute of Synthetic Rubber Producers Inc. (IISRP) offers the following guidelines for buying foam-backed carpets or rugs:

—Find out what the backing is made of. If the carpet tags or labels don't tell you, ask the salesman. The highest quality backing is either sponge rubber or latex foam rubber. About 90 per cent of all foam carpet-backing today is either sponge or foam rubber, the remainder being plastic foams. Some plastic foams mainly the "urethane" type, do not hold up well under heavy traffic, the IISRP said. Sharp heels often pierce the backing.

—Look closely at the backing. It should be at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick, preferably one-fourth of an inch. Make sure the tiny foam cells are of fairly uniform size.

—Feel the backing. A good foam backing will help keep the carpet rigid; it won't hang limply.

TRACTOR PULL -- You've heard of horse pulls? Well the up and coming thing these days is a tractor pull using those little "lazy" man type machines -- the riding lawn mowers. At a recent contest near Greencastle Martin Smith has a sled of blocks hooked onto his tractor at the left while Mike York completes pulling a load 50 feet and 11 1/2 inches on the right.

Death toll now set at 1082

By United Press International
Ten weekend traffic deaths raised Indiana's 1968 toll today to 1,082 but it was an improvement over the 1,090 killed by this date in 1967.

With only hours to go before September ends at midnight tonight, the toll for the month stood at 113, and therein lay the story of how the current count was lowered from last year. In 1967, there were 157 fatalities in September and in 1966 there were 136.

Willard Newbeyer, 50, Painesville, Ohio, died Sunday from injuries suffered Saturday in a car-train collision at Snow Hill in Randolph County about three miles northwest of Lynn.

George W. Ferguson, 19, Ligonier, was killed Sunday when his motorcycle was hit by a car on U.S. 33 in Ligonier. Ferguson became the 28th motorcyclist to be killed in Hoosier traffic this year.

Car Cut in Two
Delbert Tapscoot, 24, Indianapolis, was killed Sunday on the Madison Ave. Expressway on the Indianapolis near southside when a car in which he was riding collided with another and was cut completely in two.

Two bicycle riders were killed, John Vawter, 50, Columbus, early Sunday on Indiana 46 at the west edge of Columbus when he was hit by a car, and David Vega, 12, Chesterton, Saturday on U.S. 12 in Beverly Shores when hit by a car.

Two pedestrians also were among the weekend dead, raising the number of fatalities in the accident category to 136 for the year. They were Lawrence Niehouse, 81, Huntingburg, who was hit by a truck in Huntingburg, and Floyd L. Shipley, 10,

Jennie Carpenter services Thursday

Services for Jennie Ellen Carpenter, 82, of Fillmore will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Hopkins-Walton Funeral Home in Greencastle.

She was a member of the Fillmore Christian Church and the Rebekah Lodge 652. She was employed at the Ruark Nursing Home. She died early this morning in the Putnam County Hospital.

Survivors include, two daughters, Mrs. Naomi Bock, Greencastle and Mrs. Margaret Miller of Indianapolis; six grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren, one niece and three nephews.

Burial will be in the Fillmore Cemetery. Friends may call Hopkins-Walton anytime.

County Mental Health group entertain

Thirty-seven patients and three attendants from the Logansport State hospital enjoyed a day of entertainment in Greencastle Saturday, September 28th, at the Putnam County Saddle Club, Inc.

The gala day for the patients was arranged by the Putnam County Mental Health Association, which included attending the DePauw-St. Joseph football game at Blackstock Stadium, as guests of the university.

Dinner was served at the Saddle Club by Mrs. Robert Gilliland, House Chairman; Mrs. Julia Deem, Miss Helen Werneke, Mrs. R.W. Vermillion, Mrs. Russell Pierce, Mrs. J.B. Crosby, and Mrs. Charles Rector Jr., President of P.C.M.H.A. All food was donated by Saddle Club members and members of the Mental Health Association.

Special guests were Claude G. Ritchie, Regional Director of the Indiana Mental Health Association and Mrs. Ritchie; also, the Rev. Gordon Chastain, Vice-President of the local Board; John Weninger, Secretary, Mrs. Willis Neese, Rehabilitation Committee Chairman; Mrs. Nettie Utt, County Hospital Volunteer Chairman and Mrs. Vesta Barnes, Executive Secretary of the local Chapter.

Riders entertaining the group in the Saddle Club Arena were: Miss Elizabeth Stoner, Mrs. Ed Gray, Frank Boyce and Don McLean.

30-month tread wear plus lifetime
quality, road hazard guarantee

2 fiber glass belts stabilize
the tread with a tensile
strength greater than steel

That's stable. So stable, the tread won't squirm like it does on ordinary tires. So it wears longer. Up to 40% longer than the same tire without these belts. And it gives better traction. All that strength holds the tread open. Really socks it to the road.

2 plies of nylon cord

These are cross plies. Not radial. Cross plies give more stability than radial plies. Plus, nothing resists impact, flex-fatigue or heat build-up like nylon.
